

John was destined to be a star.....

And look where he is at 40.....

A regular Einstein of coding....

at 40,
John
redefines
the term
greybeard
or maybe he'll just start growing one..

You are old enough to run for president... But would you want to?

Guess who's 40.

Even as a little guy, John dreamed of owning a Harley

Now at 40, He's at the top of his game..... He has his bike.

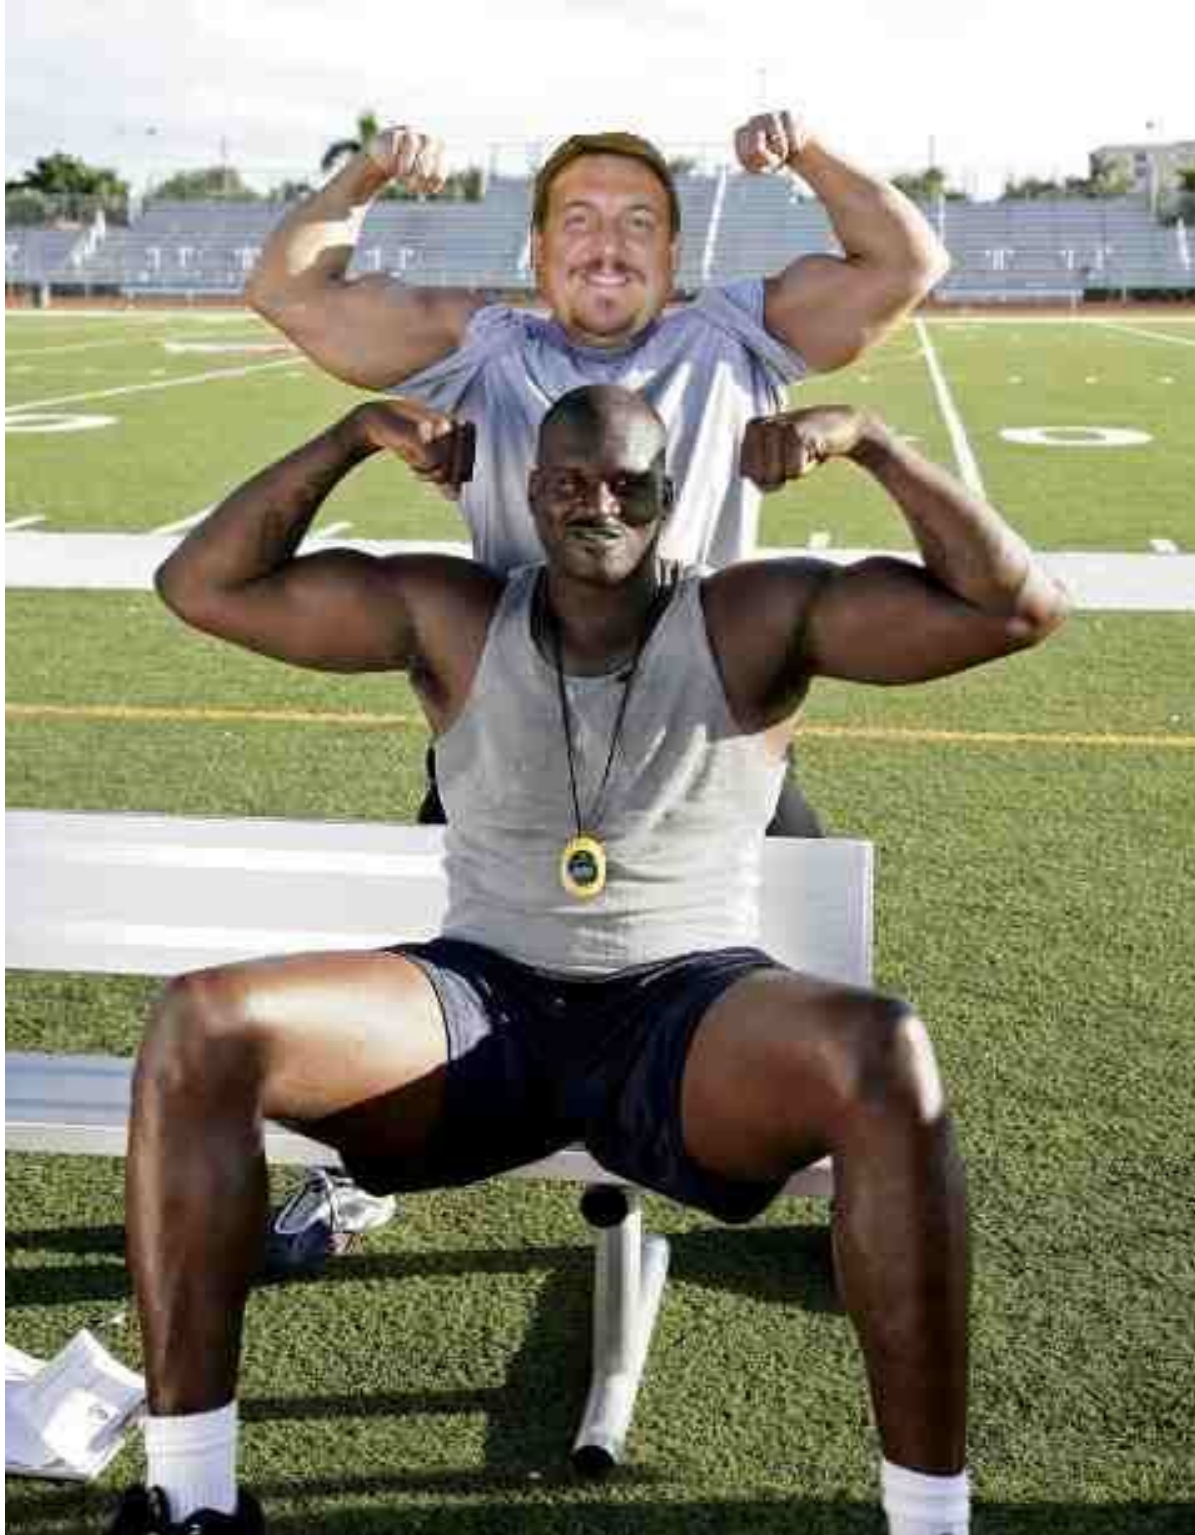

Happy Birthday

John, plan for the future....

It's downhill from here.... Happy big 40...

So John,
you really
are 40?
You don't look a day
over 39.

Yup, that's 280 in dog
years....
